Subject: Information Request - Marianna, FL - Jim Hart

Mr. Hart,

In response to your inquiry requesting information on acquiring an aircraft/missile for static display, please see the attached document National Museum of the United States Air Force (NMUSAF) Static Display Loan Program explains eligibility, qualification and the application process for obtaining a static display aircraft from the United States Air Force (USAF).

Please Note: There is no application form. Application is made by submitting a letter on official letterhead signed by the individual authorized to obligate the organization/municipality, Section 6 of the document "National Museum of the USAF (NMUSAF) Static Display Loan Program Information" explains the process and requirements.

Special attention should be given to the fact that all costs associated with the demilitarization, removal of hazardous materials, disassembly, transportation, re-assembly, setup, insurance coverage and maintenance of the display are the responsibility of the borrower.

Send the application letter and required documentation to the following address:

National Museum of the United States Air Force
ATTN: Melissa Shaw
1100 Spaatz Street
Wright-Patterson AFB OH 45433

Upon receipt, the application letter and required documents, the application package will be forwarded to Headquarters, Air Force Materiel Command Legal Office for review to determine if your organization is qualified to receive a static display aircraft under the provisions of 10 USC, Section 2572. Upon approval, your organization will be placed on the request list until a suitable aircraft becomes available.

If you have additional questions feel free to contact me at (937) 255-8839 or by email at NMUSAF.MUC.StaticDisplay@us.af.mil.

Sincerely

Melissa Shaw
Curator & Static Display Administrator
Collection Management Division
